FALL MIXER
by Pat Kenney

Some 500-600 students attended the Fall Mixer at Paul Smith's College held on Friday, November 11 from 8-12. The main attraction was Johnny Thunder.

Due to unforeseen circumstances, the band which was to accompany Johnny Thunder did not appear. A group from campus called "The Herd" and Joe Calipari and his band from Potsdam provided music for him. The crowd that turned out was made up of the Paul Smith's students and girls from Plattsburgh State. The two performances given by Johnny Thunder at this mixer were enjoyed by all.

The large crowd that turned out for the dance made this event a financial success. Because of this success, the Student Council has bigger and better plans in the making.

Fraternities and the Hotel and Radio Club helped the Student Council at the mixer by selling tickets and refreshments, running the cloak room, and cleaning up afterwards.

Much gratitude and thanks are in order for the Student Council who planned this mixer and for all the students that supported this event and made it successful.

GUITARS IN CHURCH
by Jan Trzeciak

A group of Montreal guitarists and singers will accompany a Holy Communion Service at St. John's - in - the - Wilderness Church on Dec. 4 at 5:30 P.M. The "American Folk Mass" has been presented throughout the country and is particularly popular with college students.

The Rev. George Easter will celebrate Communion, which is open to all students. Mrs. Easter, who has directed this Folk Mass during the summer at St. John's, hopes to have a Paul Smith's College group repeat the presentation next semester.

Usually the services at St. John's are at 6:30 P.M. However, the time will be moved up an hour so that the group from Montreal will get an earlier start home. The services are always followed (Continued on page 7)
